Article 8. Meetings of the Board of Directors

1. If the Board of Directors elects a Chairman, the first Board meeting for the term to elect the Chairman and make other decisions falling within their authority shall be held within seven (07) business days upon completion of the election of the Board for such term. This meeting shall be convened by the member who receives the highest number of votes. If more than one (01) member receives the same highest number of votes, the members shall, by majority vote, elect one (01) of them to convene the meeting.
2. The Board of Directors may hold regular or extraordinary meetings whenever deemed necessary, convened by the Chairman or by a member of the Board duly authorized by the Chairman. Regular meetings are to be held no less than once per quarter, either virtually or otherwise permitted by law.
3. The Board of Directors may hold meetings at MSB's headquarters or otherwise.
4. The Chairman, or any member of the Board duly authorized by the Chairman, may convene a Board meeting

   a) at the request of the Supervisory Board or an independent member of the Board;

   b) at the request of the CEO or no less than five (05) other Managers of MSB; or

   c) at the request of no less than two (02) members.

   Such request shall be made in writing, expressly stating the purpose, matters to be discussed and decided by the Board within their authority.
5. The Chairman, or any Board member duly authorized by the Chairman, shall convene a Board meeting within seven (07) business days upon receipt of any such request prescribed in Clause 4 of this Article. Save for force majeure events, if the Chairman, or the Board member duly authorized by the Chairman, fails to convene the meeting as requested, they shall be held accountable for any losses and/or damage suffered by MSB; in this case, the requesting person has the right to convene the meeting, and the attending members may vote to elect the chair of the meeting.
6. MSB may issue internal policies and regulations set forth by the Board pertaining to emergency meetings, including periods and means of notification for such meetings.
7. Except for emergency meetings, the Chairman or the person convening a meeting shall deliver an invitation no less than five (05) business days prior to the date of the meeting. The invitation shall expressly specify the time and venue of the meeting, the agenda, and the matters to be discussed and decided. Enclosed with the invitation are supporting documents to be used at the meeting and voting ballots.

   The invitation may be delivered in hard copy, by phone, by fax, by email, using electronic means, or otherwise, provided that it shall reach each Board member at the address registered with MSB.
8. The Chairman, or any Board member duly authorized by the Chairman to convene the meeting, shall further deliver the invitation and supporting documents to members of the Supervisory Board and the CEO in the same manner as to Board members.

This document is the property of MSB, for internal circulation only, and may be disclosed externally in accordance with MSB regulations and the law

Members of the Supervisory Board and the CEO, if not Board members nor other managerial officers and specialists, may attend Board meetings and participate in discussions but may not vote.

9. A Board meeting shall be held when no less than three-fourths (3/4) of the total number of the Board members ar present. If a meeting convened under this Clause does not have a sufficient number of members present as required, a second meeting shall be convened within seven (07) days from the scheduled date of the first meeting. In this case, the second meeting shall be held when more than half (50%) of the Board members are present.

10. If a Board member is unable attend a meeting in person due to force majeure events and is not subject to any restriction on authorization, such member may authorize another Board member to attend and vote on their behalf, provided that such authorization is approved by a majority of the Board members and that no less than three-quarters (3/4) of the total number of Board members still attend or submit their written opinions including by fax, by email, or using other electronic means.

11. Meetings of the Board of Directors may be held in the form of online conferences, electronic voting, or other electronic means. Online meetings among Board members may be held when all or some of the members are at different locations, provided that each attending member is able to:

    a) hear every other attending Board member speak during the meeting; and

    b) speak to all other attending members simultaneously. Discussions among members may take place directly by telephone or by other means of communication, or a combination of these methods. Board members attending such meetings shall be deemed to be "present" at such meetings. The venue of a meeting held under this provision shall be the location where the greatest number of Board members are present, or the location where the Chair of the meeting is present.

    c) Decisions adopted at meetings duly held and conducted in the aforementioned manners shall become effective immediately upon the conclusion of such meetings and be confirmed by the signatures of all attending Board members on the meeting minutes, by unanimous consent expressed by email, by approval using through opinion-gathering software, or by other electronic means, including digital or electronic signatures, applicable in cases of emergency or force majeure events.

12. Voting:

    a) Unless as specified in point b of this Clause, each Board member or their authorized person present at the meeting in their individual capacity shall have one vote;

    b) A Board member shall not vote on any contracts, transactions, or proposals in which such member or their related person has interests that conflict or may conflict with interests of MSB.

This document is the property of MSB, for internal circulation only, and may be disclosed externally in accordance with MSB regulations and the law

13. Decisions of the Board of Directors shall be approved if they receive a majority of votes in favor, including votes cast as specified in Clause 11 of this Article and votes cast by proxy. In the event of an equal number of votes, the final decision shall be determined by the position supported by the Chairman or the person duly authorized by the Chairman to chair the meeting.

14. Decisions of the Board of Directors shall become effective from the date of adoption or otherwise specified in the relevant resolutions or decisions.

15. If decisions ratified by the Board of Directors are contrary to the provisions of law, decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders, or the Charter, and cause damage to MSB, the Board members that voted in favor of such decisions shall be jointly and severally liable for such decision and indemnify MSB for the damage caused thereby, and any Board members that voted against such decisions shall be exempt from liability. In this case, MSB's shareholders may request the Court suspend the implementation of, or annul, any such decisions.[5]

Article 9. Minutes of Meetings of the Board of Directors

1. Matters discussed in all meeting of the Board of Directors shall be recorded in minutes, and may also be recorded and stored in audio, video, or other electronic formats. Meeting minutes shall mainly contain:

a) full name, head office address, and business registration certificate number/certificate of incorporation number of MSB;

b) purpose of the solicitation and matters on which opinions are sought;

c) total number of voting forms sent out, total number of voting forms returned, and number of valid voting forms, and number of invalid voting forms. The minutes shall contain an attachment listing the members of the Board of Directors who have participated in the voting;

d) total number of votes: votes in favor, votes against, and abstentions for each matter;

e) full name and signature of the Chairman or the Board Member duly authorized by the Chairman, and full name and signature of the Secretary.

7. The Secretary of the Board of Directors shall participate in the solicitation of written opinions from the Board members, and the Chairman or any Board members duly authorized by the Chairman shall be jointly and severally responsible for (i) the truthfulness and accuracy of the vote counting minutes and (ii) any damages arising from decisions approved as a result of the untruthfulness and inaccuracy of the vote counting. The completed forms, the vote counting minutes, the full text of the approved decisions, and relevant documents attached to the completed forms, shall be retained at MSB's head office.

8. Decisions of the Board of Directors shall be approved if they receive a majority of votes in favor; in the event of an equal number of votes, the final decision shall be determined by the position supported by the Chairman or the Board member duly authorized by the Chairman to decide on the solicitation of the written opinions.

9. Decisions approved through the solicitation of written opinions of members of the Board of Directors shall have the same validity and effect as decisions adopted at a meeting of the Board of Directors.

10. In addition to the aforementioned cases of solicitation, unless otherwise provided by law, as determined by the Chairman or their duly authorized person, the Board members' opinions may be solicited through the internal document management software or by other electronic means.

Article 11. Working Relationship with External Parties

1. The Chairman of the Board of Directors and members of the Board assigned to maintain working relationships with the State's regulatory agencies and external entities or individuals shall perform their duties on behalf of the Board of Directors and MSB.

2. The Chairman shall attend meetings held by external agencies and units upon invitations addressed to the Board, as well as meetings to which the Chairman is specifically invited. In the event that the Chairman is unable attend any such meeting, they shall designate another person to attend on their behalf, unless the inviting agency does not accept a substitute.

This document is the property of MSB, for internal circulation only, and may be disclosed externally in accordance with MSB regulations and the law

Article 12. Working Relationship between the Board of Directors and Shareholders

The Board of Directors and their members shall always give due consideration to the interests of shareholders and shall provide shareholders with required information in a timely and complete manner in accordance with applicable laws and the applicable rules and regulations set forth by MSB.

Article 13. Working Relationship between the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board

1. The Board of Directors shall maintain close cooperation with the Supervisory Board, shall facilitate the provision of all necessary documents and information to the Supervisory Board, and shall respect the Supervisory Board's objective and independent role. The Board of Directors shall support the Supervisory Board in the course of inspecting and auditing MSB's business, management, and administrative activities.
2. The Board of Directors shall monitor and direct the rectification and handling of violations in accordance with the Supervisory Board's recommendations, including any errors committed by the Board of Directors itself or their members.

Article 14. Working Relationship between the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee

1. In the course of coordination, members of the Board of Directors and members of the Executive Board shall automatically coordinate and exchange information; shall facilitate the prompt, timely, and transparent handling of matters; shall follow the orders, procedures, processes, and schedules for the handling of matters as prescribed by law and as defined by MSB; and shall ensure the fulfillment of their assigned duties and protect MSB's interests.
2. In carrying out their governance functions, the Board of Directors shall not direct MSB's units directly but shall do so through the CEO.
